

SENATE RESOLUTION 224

By Beavers

A RESOLUTION to commend Josh Bradley for exemplary service as a legislative intern.

WHEREAS, each legislative session this body is pleased to recognize certain persons who have committed themselves, through their adroit service, to the betterment of the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, Josh Bradley is one such individual who has distinguished himself in his role as a legislative intern for Senator Mae Beavers; Josh's work has resulted in innumerable benefits for the legislators he assisted and the General Assembly as a whole; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bradley recently graduated from the University of Tennessee after earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science. During his collegiate tenure, he was placed on the Dean's List each semester, was a member of the Phi Alpha Delta Fraternity, and held membership in the National Society of Collegiate Scholars; and

WHEREAS, Josh Bradley is also a recipient of the prestigious George Oliver Benton Scholarship, a scholarship specifically designed to benefit Tennessee's legislative interns; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize himself with the characteristics and complexities of Tennessee state government and to further his studies, Josh brought his many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2010 session of the One Hundred Sixth General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2010 legislative session, Josh Bradley has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern, including assisting in the research and preparation for numerous pieces of legislation, including the Tennessee Health Freedom Act, legislation concerning the election of the Attorney General, and legislation expanding the use of Ignition Interlock Devices; and

WHEREAS, his work within the office of Senator Beavers has resulted in a new electronic committee calendar system and a paperless committee program used by the Senate Judiciary Committee, and he attended his many tasks with acumen and alacrity; and

WHEREAS, Josh Bradley has performed his many duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we hereby commend Josh Bradley for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Senator Mae Beavers and extend to him our best wishes for every future success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
